

New light on Oust Road

Trapped inside like you're in prison, but after a very long time we are allowed to come out, which feels like it's been 1000000 years.

Doors clicked open and bright faces wandered out,
children, adults and elders embraced the fresh air.

Now more and more doors came open,
people step out so happy and looked around to see everyone's smiling faces.

Everyone breathing in the air without a mask,
people throwing masks in the bin.

People celebrating with family and friends,
friends talking outside.

Children making so much noise,
everyone hugging and smiling.

Once quiet street turned into a loud street, cats did rule the street as no-one went out, but we took the street back.

Be Happy!
