

Year 4 Spring

If we double each side of a small square we get a new enlarged square:

The new enlarged square is the size of four of the smaller squares.

This also happens when we enlarge other shapes. Some, like the squares, can be filled with the same smaller shape.

You may want to cut out this sheet to help you.

Extension:

